PTSA hosts senior luncheon for last day

It's time to say good-bye to 2015 and four years of high school. The 2015 graduating class of Queen Anne's County High School is the year we've never had before.

The air in the hallways was one of laid-back excitement. While most were looking forward to summer vacations, Nikolai Rhodes and Lauren Mortimer will be getting an early start to their college plans. Rhodes, a former student board member, will start June 23 with the Air Force. Mortimer, who plans to study for in linguistics, will be on duty July 1 at the University of Maryland, Baltimore. Both, however, are planning to enjoy Senior Week in City first.

The annual senior luncheon is hosted by the PTSA of Queen Anne's County High School.

Seniors at Queen Anne's County High School enjoy a luncheon courtesy of the Parent Teacher Student Association and their numerous sponsors, including Domino's, Chick-It-A and Commerce Street Creamery, on the last day before graduation.

The QACHS PTSA had an amazing amount of support this school year and we would like to take this time to thank the students, teachers, families & community of QACHS for your contributions. A huge shout out to the following groups & businesses for the support you continue to give to the PTSA. We could not move forward without your generosity!
